HISTORY HOUSING & HOPE:

A COMMUNITY CONVERSATION
ON FAIR HOUSING

This engaging panel discussion will focus on the history of the Gainsboro/NW area of Roanoke—once a thriving center of African American culture, business, and community life—and examine how past policies and development decisions continue to shape housing access and opportunity today. Panelists will share insights into urban renewal, displacement, generational wealth impacts, and the ongoing efforts to promote fair and equitable housing.

PRESENTERS:

- ✓ LESLIE FRAZIER - VIRGINIA REALTORS®
- ✓ JORDAN BELL - HISTORIAN
- ✓ RITA JOYCE - BANK OF BOTETOURT
- ✓ ANTHONY E. JENNINGS - IVELMAP REALTY, LLC
- ✓ THE HONORABLE JOSEPH L. COBB - MAYOR, CITY OF ROANOKE
